

Social Harvest Ottawa

Community Garden Meeting

March 9, 2022

Who is Social Harvest?

Social Harvest is a social enterprise and gardening facilitator located in the Forbes neighbourhood of Ottawa. We are part of the Rideau-Rockcliffe Community Resource Centre which provides a range of resources and social supports.

We address food insecurity in our community through a range of activities including:

- Offering workshops on urban agriculture to improve food literacy skills;
 - Hosting a community garden to facilitate access to fresh and nutritious produce;
 - Providing opportunities to develop work experience and reduce barriers to employment through internships;
 - Running educational and awareness solution-led environmental programs

About the Garden

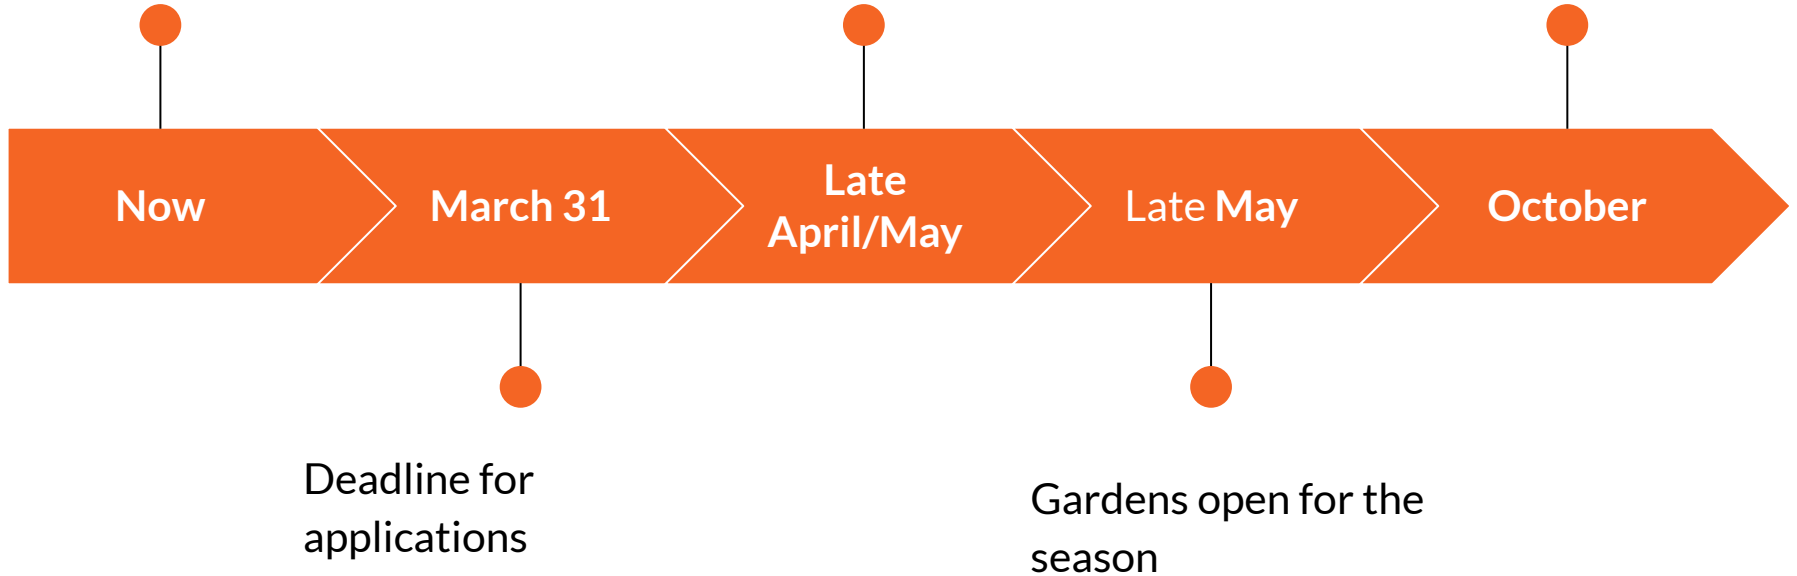

How it works

- Gardeners will pay the $20 to rent a designated plot in the SHO garden (an application for financial aid is available).
 - The period of rental will be one gardening season-lasting from May 2022 to November 2022 (weather permitting).
 - Gardeners will only use their assigned plot.
 - To ensure everyone's safety we will follow all Ottawa Public Health and RRCRC safety guidelines.

Registration for the garden opens

Plots will be allocated using a lottery system

Garden beds are to be cleaned and prepared for the winter

Role of the Gardener

- Gardeners adhere to a Code of Conduct, as outlines in the registration form to be provided
 - Only organic gardening methods will be used in the gardens, for more information please see the Gardening section of the attached Registration form.
 - Tools, gardening beds and soil will be provided by SHO. Gardeners are responsible for providing their own plants and seeds.
 - The areas around the bed will be mowed by SHO, but gardeners are responsible for maintaining their own plots

A wooden basket overflowing with fresh autumn produce. In the foreground, there are several bright orange carrots with their roots. Behind them are several pumpkins, including a large yellow one with green stripes and a smaller one with a black and yellow pattern. There are also several red and yellow apples, a large green leafy vegetable, and a few brown potatoes. The basket is set against a background of green foliage and a blurred outdoor setting.
